JESSE HAU JOINS ARGOTEC, INC. AS PLASTICS ENGINEER

GREENFIELD, Massachusetts — March 28, 2005 — Argotec, Inc., of Greenfield, Massachusetts, announces the appointment of Jesse Hau as plastics engineer for the company's specialty film & sheet extrusion business. He will have responsibility for process and product development, as well as other technical functions.

Mr. Hau has nearly 10 years experience in the film and sheet manufacturing. Prior to joining Argotec, he was a process engineer at global polymer service company Polyone Corp., and most recently at Plymouth Rubber Corp.

Originally from Hong Kong, China, Mr. Hau received a bachelor of science degree in chemical engineering from the Hong Kong University of Science & Technology, in 1996. He currently resides in Amherst, Massachusetts with his wife and new son.

Argotec, Inc., is a global manufacturer of high performance polyurethane film and sheet. Referred to by some as the "best kept secret in the specialty film industry," this rapidly growing firm provides custom-engineered film products for a wide variety of critical applications using flat-die, blown-film and cast-on-carrier extrusion technologies.
